Contest Hearings Probably Will Be Open to Writers

CHICAGO, June 3.—President Taft has written to Chairman New of the subcommittee on arrangements for the national Republican convention, suggesting that meetings of the national committee at which contests are heard be open to the press and the public.

The president's letter was received at the national committee headquarters today. In it he suggests that Mr. New take up with the committee the matter of open hearings, and that, if the committee finds it desirable, the deliberations over the contests be carried up in open session.

Chairman New expressed the opinion tonight that the action taken by the president will have great weight with the committee. This taken in connection with the previous request of Colonel Roosevelt for publicity of the contests probably will be thrown open to newspaper men when the committee takes up contested delegate issues Friday morning.

The president's letter was the chief subject of discussion at political headquarters tonight, and his decision for public hearings is declared by his supporters to indicate that the Taft managers believe their contest cases are strongly prepared.

Open Taft Headquarters

The Taft headquarters were opened today by Joseph B. Keating of Indiana, but up to a late hour tonight only two eastern representatives of the president had reached Chicago. John Ryan and A. A. Tully of the publicity bureau.

Mr. Keating urged Director McKinley by telegraph today to hurry to Chicago and he is expected to reach the city tomorrow morning.

The Roosevelt and Taft headquarters have been established in the same hotel. Alexander H. Revell, head of the Illinois headquarters, who returned this morning from Oyster Bay, gave out a statement tonight outlining what he said was Colonel Roosevelt's attitude toward convention organization.

"We are assured absolutely that there will be a clear majority for Colonel Roosevelt on the first ballot," said Mr. Revell. The only proposition in sight is to develop the strength throughout the convention preliminaries so that it ultimately will be concentrated in the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt.

Absolutely nothing else has or will be considered by Colonel Roosevelt or by his friends prior to or during the convention.

Two Taft Delegates for Colonel

Edwin W. Sims, who is in charge of the Chicago Roosevelt headquarters until the arrival of Senator Dixon, made public a telegram from Oscar R. Hundley, a Roosevelt leader in Alabama, Mr. Hundley said that the two delegates from the Third Alabama district must vote for President Taft.

For Sallow, Wrinkled, Freckled, Pimpled Skin

(From Woman's Home Journal.)

If you have any untoward blemishes on your face, powder or anything else to cover it up. Too often this only emphasizes the defect. Besides it is much easier to remove the blemishes by ordinary means than to apply makeup.

Apply the cream to your face gradually, removing the cream with a soft cloth. Do not use the cream on your face until you are sure it is safe. Many women have tried this simple and harmless treatment with the best results.

If bothered with wrinkles, sagging cheeks or double chin, a wash bottle made by dissolving an ounce of exfoliant in a half pint of water will prove effective.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays, almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly hygienic laboratories.

An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Tonic, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and thin, weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days, you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair.

Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a fifty-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Agents, the Robinson Drug Co.

Rigid Regulations to Protect Youth of Denver Planned

DENVER, June 3.—An ordinance creating two inspectors of public amusements, who will have censorship and authority over all moving picture houses, amusements, theaters, public dance halls, pool rooms, bowling alleys and other places of the kind, was drafted today by Juvenile Judge Ben B. Lindsey. Mayor Henry J. Arnold and Police Commissioner George Croft are the first of its kind to be framed in the United States and will be presented to the board of aldermen at its first meeting tomorrow night.

The proposed law provides in detail for the regulation of moving picture houses and dance halls. The two inspectors, one a man and one a woman, who will be appointed if the bill is passed are already at work.

Protection of the youth of the city is the object of the measure. School children will not be allowed in moving picture houses during school hours or at night unless accompanied by parents or guardians. Girls under 15 years of age will not be allowed in public dance halls after 9 p. m. unless accompanied by guardians or parents, and must register if they are in the hall before that hour. No liquor will be allowed at dance halls, and all dances must close at 12 o'clock unless special permission is granted by the fire and police board. The inspectors will be members of the police force and will be aided at night by special details of police if necessary.

STAMBOUL SWEEP BY ANOTHER BIG FIRE

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 2.—A great fire today swept over Stamboul, the Mohammedan section of Constantinople. At 8 o'clock this evening the fire was still burning, but it was hoped its further advance had been checked. Two thousand houses and several mosques were burned.

A wide lane was cleared by the flames from the walls of the old Seraglio palace grounds as far as Little Aya mosque, a distance of three-quarters of a mile. This mosque escaped destruction and the open space about it appears to have stayed the fire.

The advance of the flames toward the wealthier quarters was barred by the hippodrome and the Sultan Ahmed mosque, both of which were saved from here the conflagration swept southward toward the Marmara shore, where the houses are smaller and for the most part built of wood.

Another outbreak occurred in the Greek quarter of Tattavla, opposite Pera. Great distress has resulted to the poorer people, and pathetic scenes were plentiful outside the line of the fire, where hundreds of poverty-stricken families wept over the remnants of their household furnishings.

Each age of our lives has its joys. Old people should be happy, and they will be if Chamberlain's Tablets are taken to strengthen the digestion and keep the bowels regular. These tablets are mild and gentle in their action and especially suitable for people of middle age and older. For sale by all dealers.

OCEAN SAFETY ACT BEFORE THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, June 3.—An all-inclusive bill to be termed "the ocean safety act of 1917" designed to cover all the navigation lessons drawn from the Titanic disaster was introduced today by Senator Nelson of Minnesota, chairman of the commerce committee, which through a subcommittee investigated the disaster.

The bill includes stringent regulations for better wireless equipment, continuously operated on ocean and great lakes vessels carrying 50 or more persons, just as provided in a bill which passed the house today and all most identical with a bill already passed by the senate. This wireless section vests control of the apparatus in the master of the vessel and to avoid the wireless communication being shut off by failure of the engine, requires a powerful auxiliary power supply that can communicate 100 miles at all times.

The Nelson bill would recognize foreign steamship laws whenever they are as effective as American laws and regulations, would equip every passenger craft leaving an American port with sufficient lifeboats to accommodate all passengers, and would create a commission of five persons to investigate merchant marine construction here and abroad.

FANS AFFECT SCALES

Denver May Take Steps to Require Butchers and Grocers to Move Breeze-Producers

DENVER, June 3.—The electric fan, in spite of the beneficent effect it is known to exert in keeping light-footed flies from head heads, has fallen into signal disfavor. The patrons of Denver meat markets and grocers are its avowed enemies. Placed above counters to keep insects and flying dirt from the goods on sale, it is alleged, the gentle blower and its sephyr are daily robbing housewives of several hundreds of dollars. It is estimated that the breeze from an ordinary fan, placed above a scale, exerts a downward pressure of more than one ounce, and a determined effort is to be made to have the city inspector of weights and measures require grocers and meat market keepers to keep their windproducers sufficiently remote from their weighing machines to overcome this effect. Several cities in the east have taken up the matter and the removal of the fans has been ordered. G. S. Beckman, inspector of weights and measures at Springfield, Ill., was the first to take up the crusade.

BOSTON CAPITALISTS TO BUILD NEW MILL

THUDS FROM THE PADDED CELL

MARSE HENRY WATTERSON, of the Louisville Courier Journal, and Colonel George Harvey of Harper's Weekly have already worked themselves into such a state of frenzy over the Roosevelt candidacy that it will take a lot of careful nursing to carry them safely through the hydrophobia season. Marse Henry devotes a whole page of his paper to setting forth the testimony of alienists and newspaper editors to show that Roosevelt is crazy. Commenting on this effort Colonel Harvey thinks that considering the usual standing of alienists in court it would be pretty hard to prove anything on Roosevelt by them, and then he proceeds to cast doubts on his own sanity by printing these ravings in the editorial column of Harper's Weekly:

Mark these words! Roosevelt's election to the Presidency would spell revolution within ten years. And by revolution we do not mean mere political overturning of a system of government. We mean actual warfare by force of arms upon the rule of a despot. We mean bloodshed and carnage, class arrayed against class in a mighty struggle for supremacy. Vastly more destructive than our war of section against section. Is there a limit to the ambition of Roosevelt? Would he be permitted to assume dictatorship without a struggle? Answer these two questions, and consider the inevitable consequence of intruding the Man on Horseback in the White House.

Rest, quiet, complete change of scene and of diet—especially the liquid portion—would do Colonel Harvey a world of good. A man who sees in the election of Roosevelt "bloodshed and carnage," a mighty struggle for supremacy, vastly more destructive than our war of section against section—and all this within ten years—ought to be looked after carefully. We don't know whether there is any loco weed growing in the window boxes in the editorial rooms of Harper's Weekly but it is perfectly plain that somehow, somewhere Colonel Harvey has become "plumb locoed."

PERILS OF THE AIR

THE tragic death of Phil Parmalee, the aviator, at North Yakima, Washington, last Saturday is of local interest because it was he who made most of the flights in the aviation meet here last summer. After a good deal of difficulty Parmalee and Turpin succeeded in getting into the air, and on the last day of the meet Parmalee flew across the Mesa and circled the Garden of the Gods. Now he has met the usual fate of men who follow his dangerous calling, and almost at the same time Turpin, his associate here, narrowly escaped death in another accident.

Turpin says that he and Parmalee had decided to quit aviation after filling two more engagements. But of course death overtook one of them before the date set for his retirement. It usually does. The art of flying is the newest and one of the greatest achievements of science and mechanical skill. The aeroplane is the most truly startling invention of all time. The world had got used to the wonders of electricity, but the wonder of man-flight seemed incomprehensible. Now it is a commonplace affair and nothing about it is more commonplace than the loss of life involved.

Considering the number engaged in it aviation is the most hazardous vocation or avocation known. Every page of its record is a story of death and disaster. Curtiss and the Wright brothers, the pioneers in America, wisely valued their own lives more than the money and reputation to be earned by giving exhibitions and stopped making flights as soon as they had actually demonstrated the practicability of their machines. Bleriot, Paulhan and a few other Europeans who first developed the aeroplane, followed the same course and are alive today. With scarcely an exception the other men who took up aviation at the beginning and stuck to it have been killed. Each year shows a tremendous increase in the fatality record. In 1911 seventy-seven men were killed and the death rate thus far this year is fully as great.

PAY TO SEE LIST OF SOMEONE KILLED.

The rapidly increasing list of accidents is of course due chiefly to the larger number of men engaged in aviation, and does not necessarily argue that no progress has been made toward making the aeroplane safer than it was in the beginning. It is claimed for the Wright machines now being produced that they are much more stable than those built two years ago and can be handled with safety under conditions formerly impossible. However this may be, the constantly recurring fatalities in which the lives of the most expert operators are sacrificed prove beyond question that the time is still a long way off when aviation can be considered anything but the most hazardous of all occupations. Whoever goes up in a flying machine puts himself at the mercy of a gust of wind and faces almost certain death if the slightest accident happens to his machine or if he chances for an instant to lose control.

But this does not mean that the popularity of aviation, either with the people who pay to see the flight or with the men who engage in it, is likely to wane. On the contrary the element of peril is largely responsible for the tremendous popularity of flying exhibitions. One of the most successful operators—who, by the way, has since been killed—did not miss the truth very far when he said that the crowd paid their money "to see him come as near killing himself as he could without actually doing it," and that they howled derision at him and called him a coward if he refused to go up under weather conditions which meant certain death. There is enough of the barbaric instinct in most of us to make such perilous exhibitions extremely popular, and the money rewards of the successful aviators are so great that the companies engaged in the business are overwhelmed with applications from venturesome youths willing to take any chance to earn the big salaries and enjoy the transient fame. Whenever an aviator is killed a dozen more are ready and eager to take his place, and it probably will be so to the end.

OPEN PARLIAMENT

MEDICAL FREEDOM.

To the Editor of The Gazette:
I request a space in your Open Parliament for the purpose of offering a suggestion, in reference to the controversy now taking place between the medical association and the progressive physicians, or the National League for Medical Freedom. I would suggest that the two factions should open a debate upon the subject, in order to determine this question of a medical monopoly. If Dr. Boyd has some loose fifty dollars to throw at the public to determine the question of monopoly upon the people or who they shall choose as their legal practitioners, someone will no doubt be able to accommodate him. I myself am a member of the National League for Medical Freedom, am also a graduate in electro-therapeutics and licensed practitioner, but believe in medical freedom. In fact, I believe in doing to insure health it would be necessary to order the Chicago laws to pay the physician while he keeps the patient well, but when he allows the patient to get sick, then the pay is stopped. I will frankly say after 33 years' practice without the use of drugs, that this drug system is one of the greatest grafts that the world has to cope with today. The honest physician will say himself that there is no healer outside of nature; every honest man or woman who use the upper portion of their brain know that 90 per cent of the operations that today take place are a failure so far as making a cure; the operations for make-believe tumors and ovarian troubles, and the destruction of motherhood will eventually be looked into by national laws; the time will come when all of these things will be understood so thoroughly that it can be eradicated from the system.

Ninety-five per cent of the instrumental births is wholly unnecessary; the administration of chloroform at birth is injurious to the mother and child, causing infantile paralysis, besides endangering the mother, which was unheard of 50 years ago. I believe that each party, the physicians or M. D.'s, and all drugless practitioners, should come before the public in open debate and discuss these questions in such a manner that the public will be able to understand and judge for themselves.

I admire The Gazette very much in the fair and impartial way that it has given space in its valuable paper for these questions. For my part I want to see this question settled. I am not afraid of the outcome if all parties are given an equal chance. The question should be settled without any quarrel or malice to either side.

DR. AGNES WINZELL.
Colorado City, Colo., June 2.

AN INVITATION DECLINED.

The Socialist party is not in the field to improve political conditions nor to follow any leaders. The party is in the field to help bring about the abolition of the system of the old parties so strongly favored and the reformers take great delight in attacking it, and while engaged in this fight Socialists exist, where are doing their utmost to improve the immediate conditions of the workers in the shape of shorter hours, higher wages and sanitary working conditions.

To ask a revolutionary organization to support a reformer is like asking a man or woman to kindly take a rope and hang him or herself for the fun of it. Voting for a principle is not throwing the vote away; it is the civilized means of registering the ever-growing discontent against modern conditions so dear at heart even to the insistent Republicans and progressive Democrats now in power in California and New Jersey, where in no other part of this land have workmen and women been more brutally treated and the constitutional rights trampled under foot as they now are in San Diego, Cal., according to N. J.

Antitism, that Stewart is elected governor of this state. I venture to say that in spite of his good intentions, Colorado will be prettier as it is present. We will still be under capitalism, the tools of production will still be privately owned and the material conditions of the workers will not improve, either.

To support Mr. Stewart and Mr. Roosevelt because they have swiped a few so-called Socialist plank is absurd, more so because they have taken planks the workers are very little interested in. Public ownership of certain items of transportation is no more Socialism than the braying of a jack-ass is music.

In spite of what the opportunists in the Socialist party are trying to twist into public ownership rot, Socialism stands for the abolition of the present system and to do this the Socialists will join no other party that does not recognize the struggle between the capitalist class on one side and the working class on the other side, and the party that is not willing when in power to abolish rent, profit and interest as well as private property in absolutely everything but what a person has earned by his own labor, cannot expect support from the Socialists anywhere in the world.

But The Gazette tells us that our candidates for district judges and district attorney are not eligible to those positions because they are not lawyers. That may be true, though it seems to be proved after our candidates are elected. I know that the Socialist candidates know little about what's loosely termed "law," but they make up in the science of sociology of which so many of our lawyers, professors and editors are at par with the Egyptian mummies.

Most of the lawyers, judges, professors and editors are using good language, write good decisions (as far as grammar goes), write and deliver classic articles and orations, but were they graduates of mines, mills and smelters they would never write and talk good language, but they would talk and write a blame eight more sense and there would be more backbone in their expressions than there is. The interpretation of the laws would be written in such manner that even a modern judge and lawyer would catch their meaning.

In conclusion, let me say that if anyone wants to test the knowledge of our candidates, let him challenge them all or individually to a discussion on modern political and industrial problems and see how easily he can lick them; also to try his powers of converting a clear-headed Socialist to support any of the reformers and good men from Mr. Stewart to Mr. Roosevelt. A. G. BERNAT.
Colorado Springs, June 3.

Center shots

By ED HOWE.

Half the time a man wants appreciation; the other half he wants to be let alone.

Coffee is rarely good away from home. An expression probably used more than any other: "I see by the papers," etc.

Your private thinking is as near the truth as you can get. He guided by what you have thought out in private, and not by what some selfish leader has thought out for you.

Your world is not the world of literature or oratory. The men who succeed are, as a rule, better than their critics, who do not.

Every man who speaks in public, or writes for print, puts an unnatural polish on his truth.

People are lately not only more liberal in religion, they are more liberal in their social relations. If Hester Prynne lived now she wouldn't be compelled to wear a scarlet letter on her breast.

People are always saying that they are not jealous, and have no reason to be; but the fact is all of us are jealous, and most of us have reason to be.

Someone seems to have whipped the devil; haven't you noticed that he is much more modest here lately?

A Twenty Per Cent Investment

By RUTH CAMERON.

Diamonds, people say, are a good investment instead of a luxury, because they are increasing in value. With this sentiment the diamond buyer who knows he is being unduly extravagant justifies himself. But how many other things that are fair better investments than diamonds the same person would feel he could not afford.

I am thinking just now especially of trees. How many young people who buy a house, would feel that they could invest, say fifty dollars, in buying trees to put around it? And yet when these same young folks become engaged the ring he gave her probably cost two or three times that sum. And can the diamonds possibly be as good an investment as the trees?

Outside my study window a very beautiful white birch has been putting on its spring garments. Faint, frothy suggestions of green have been gradually developing into trailing, voluminous vestures. Every fair May morning the sight of the sunlight striking down through the branches, and the exquisite pale green of the top given me moments of keenest pleasure. The tree is not mine. It belongs to my neighbor.

But that is one of the wonderful things about this kind of an investment—it blesses and enriches many besides the possessor. My neighbor is very proud of this tree. It cost him about three dollars when he bought it as a sapling 25 years ago, and he says it is the best investment he ever made.

Two friends of mine are planning to own a house. They are going to borrow most of the money to build it, and naturally they are trying to be as economical as possible in their estimates. And yet they have reckoned fifty dollars for trees. Some of this money will be spent for fruit trees, but some of it will go to buy trees whose only fruit is beauty. I do not think they will ever regret this investment.

Another family who have lived about 15 years in their present home, when they first bought the place, were advised to plant a few trees. But it takes so long for trees to grow," the protested, "and who knows when we shall be 10 years from now?" Had they been willing to risk the terrible contingency of benefitting someone else by their expenditure, they would have a much more attractive home today.

Not only are trees a splendid investment from the point of view of the pleasure they give, but also from the value they add to property. On a certain street one home is universally regarded as the aristocrat. I stopped the other day to study its architecture and found that after all it was no larger, no more elaborate nor expensive than two or three other houses on the street. Its distinction plainly comes from the fact that it is set well back from the street, and screened by two or three magnificent trees, which attract every eye and give an appearance of dressiness to the place.

Have you planted any trees this spring? If you haven't, surely you are going to. What if you do live in a rented house, will you not be generous enough to risk a few dollars when the only chance you take is what you may give pleasure to someone else instead of yourself?

HIGH COURT HANDS DOWN IMPORTANT DECISIONS

DENVER, June 3.—Three important decisions were handed down by the state supreme court today. By the court's action, the public utilities suit is dropped. Louis Wechter must hang for the killing of W. C. Clifford Burrows and the attorney general may prosecute former penitentiary officers for alleged grafting from state funds.

Upon a stipulation filed by members of the public utilities commission and the new city treasurer and auditor, the public utilities suit was dropped. The suit was brought last year by members of the commission against Treasurer Greengard and Auditor Vickery, who refused salaries to the commissioners on the ground that the commission was illegal.

Louis Wechter was denied a hearing in his case. Last month the supreme court denied his application for a rehearing and the week beginning August 25 was fixed as the time for his execution.

Wechter filed a petition for a rehearing of his first petition and this was denied today. Wechter was sentenced to death for the killing of W. C. Burrows in a local cafe on the evening of February 11, 1911.

In the so-called penitentiary graft case, the supreme court reversed the decision of the district court of Fremont county, which held that the state could not prosecute John Cleghorn, ex-warden of the penitentiary, and D. E. Gibson, a Canon City lumber man, in connection with alleged irregularities at the state penitentiary.

INSISTS THERE WAS NO AGREEMENT ABOUT SUGAR

NEW YORK, June 4.—Chester S. Moray, president of the Great Western Sugar company, again was under examination today in the federal suit to dissolve the American Sugar Refining company and Assistant United States District Attorney Knapp endeavored to draw from the witness an admission that beet sugar prices followed cane sugar quotations regardless of the beet sugar yield and that the result was accomplished by splitting the territory west of the Missouri river.

Mr. Moray was shown several letters that passed between himself and H. O. Havemeyer in 1908, in one of which Mr. Havemeyer wrote:

"I repeat that anything you and Mr. Oxnard may do will be satisfactory to me."

The witness said the western territory was split at that time, not because of any agreement or arrangement, but because the beet and granulated sugar men respected what each believed to be the wishes of the other.

Mr. Moray denied Mr. Oxnard and he agreed upon a division of the beet and cane sugar territory.

Mr. Knapp produced a letter written by Mr. Moray to Mr. Havemeyer dated August 23, 1906, in which the witness referred to "our agreement of last year," and then asked Mr. Moray:

"In the light of the information in this letter will you insist there was an agreement?"

"Yes," answered the witness. "Will you say there was no verbal agreement?" continued Mr. Knapp. "As I remember it, we were asked to keep out of the Missouri river territory in the fall of the year and we did so," answered the witness.

"You did this in 1903, 1904 and 1905—didn't you do it always since?"

"Why, from these letters it seems we must have kept up the arrangement longer than I thought we did."

WHOLESALE MURDERERS HAVE SECRET GRAVEYARD

NEW YORK, June 3.—Within a few days, William J. Flynn, chief of the eastern division of the secret service, believes he will be able to reveal the secret graveyard where the members of the Lupo-Morelli band have buried their victims.

The murders of the band, Flynn declares, have averaged one a week. Although he says he knows of more than 40 murders, which have been committed by the band.

These statements were made by Flynn following an attack on the secret service by Otto B. Linder, an anti-secret service operator. Klinka seeks to have a congressional investigation of the secret service here, and Mr. Flynn says that such a course would cost the lives of five of his men now high in the councils of the band.

"Romance," said the secret service chief. "It sounds like it, but it isn't. In the last three weeks they have committed three murders. Young Morelli was murdered only a fortnight ago. He had fallen under suspicion. When a hand will murder the son of their imprisoned leader simply because they suspect him, what crime will they not commit?"

It is believed the boy will recover and that amputation of the injured arm will not be necessary.

IN THE EARLY DAYS

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

JUNE 4, 1882.
County Superintendent of Schools B. A. P. Eaton went to Gwillimville, a few miles east of Monument, to dedicate the new school just completed there.

Hon. W. F. Cody, better known as Buffalo Bill, was a visitor in Manitou.

Hon. E. O. Wolcott was in this city visiting Hon. L. K. Bass.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

JUNE 4, 1892.
It was feared that the Manitou sandstone, which was being used in the foundation of the High school building, then under construction, was not strong enough, and that it would have to be replaced with some other material.

The city was rapidly filling up with tourists.

THE HASKIN LETTER

NATIONAL CONVENTIONS. VII—THE FIRST DARK HORSE

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

The first dark horse ever nominated for president of the United States was a product of the national Democratic convention of 1844. This convention was notable not only because of this fact, but because it was the only one in which the traditional two-thirds rule has operated to defeat a candidate having a majority of the vote in the convention. It is also notable because of its connection with the first use of the telegraph.

General Harrison had died after only a month in the White House and had been succeeded by John Tyler, a nominal Whig, but in fact a Calhoun Democrat. His quarrel with the Whig leaders had gone to the extent that he had reorganized his cabinet on a Democratic basis, and John C. Calhoun was his secretary of state. The slavery question was becoming more and more acute and practically everybody in the south, as well as a great many people in the north, desired the annexation of Texas. The Texans had secured their independence from Mexico and were knocking at the door of the American union, asking for admission as a state. Tyler was distinctly in favor of annexation.

The Democrats had been practically unanimous in the belief that Mr. Van Buren should be renominated, confident that the Whig victory of 1840 could not be repeated since the complete nullification had been such a complete failure. The Whigs, on the other hand, were determined that this time no consideration of practical politics should prevent the nomination of their popular idol, Henry Clay. The abolitionist sentiment in the north was growing, and the Democratic leaders were beginning to fear division on the slavery question. The Whigs, by the very constitution of their party, had always to consider this difficulty.

Warm Personal Friends.
Although bitter political enemies, Clay and Van Buren were warm personal friends. Mr. Van Buren visited Mr. Clay at his home at Ashland, Kentucky, and they discussed the Texas question. They agreed that it was too hot to handle, and they decided to eliminate it as an issue in the coming campaign by a common agreement. The Whig convention was to be held in Baltimore on May 1, and the Democratic convention was to meet in the same city on May 27. In those days each of the political parties maintained official newspaper organs at Washington. The National Intelligencer represented the Whigs, and the Washington Globe the Democrats. On April 27 there appeared in the National Intelligencer an open letter from Mr. Clay saying that he was opposed to the annexation of Texas without the consent of Mexico.

The murders of the band, Flynn declares, have averaged one a week. Although he says he knows of more than 40 murders, which have been committed by the band.

These statements were made by Flynn following an attack on the secret service by Otto B. Linder, an anti-secret service operator. Klinka seeks to have a congressional investigation of the secret service here, and Mr. Flynn says that such a course would cost the lives of five of his men now high in the councils of the band.

It is believed the boy will recover and that amputation of the injured arm will not be necessary.

Washington to Baltimore had been finished the day before, but only a few experimental messages had been sent over it. At the same time, there was in session in Baltimore the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and the debates on the celebrated case of Bishop Andrew, which was to result in the separation of the northern and southern sections of the church, were in progress. The "Know Nothing," or native American movement, was under way in Pennsylvania, and Baltimore was then feeling a repetition of the riots that had taken place in Philadelphia only a few days before, when, in a riotous battle between "Know Nothings" and Irish Catholics, some eighty odd persons were slain. The whole atmosphere was surcharged with excitement and the people were prepared for anything. On the same day a convention of officeholders, styling itself the "National Democratic Tyler convention," was meeting in Baltimore, nominating President Tyler as the Democratic candidate for president. This movement soon perished miserably.

Plan to Defeat Van Buren.
The Democratic convention met and Romulus M. Saunders, who had championed the two-thirds rule in a previous convention, nominated Heindrick B. Wright of Pennsylvania, for temporary chairman. Mr. Wright having taken the chair, Mr. Saunders immediately moved the adoption of the rules of the national conventions of 1832 and 1855. This meant nothing more nor less than the readoption of the two-thirds rule. The opposition to Van Buren included many of the southern delegates who had been instructed to vote for him. He would have the majority on the first ballot, for these delegates must follow their instructions. But, if the two-thirds rule could be enforced, these same delegates could, after a few ballots, with good grace desert Van Buren and go to some other man. That this was the whole purpose of the Saunders motion to readopt the rules of 1832 and 1855 was manifest to everyone of the 266 delegates present.

The Saunders motion was set aside at the time because of a parliamentary objection, but the North Carolina congressman renewed it at every opportunity, and after a day and a half of earnest and bitter contention, in which the two-thirds rule found its champion in Robert J. Walker of Mississippi, and its chief opponent in Benjamin F. Butler of New York, the Saunders motion prevailed, and the two-thirds rule was adopted.

The Jackson influence that had made Van Buren had destroyed him, and in destroying him, it had used every engine invented by Van Buren in 1832, to insure Van Buren's nomination for the vice presidency. The two-thirds rule, which still prevails in Democratic conventions, has never defeated but one man for president.

A majority of the delegates at any time during the balloting, and that one man was the author of the rule—Martin Van Buren of New York.

Tried to Stampede Convention.
On the first ballot Van Buren had 146 of the 266 votes. The next highest man was Lewis Cass of Michigan, with 83; then came Richard M. Johnson of Kentucky, with 64. The others had only two or three votes each.

Seven ballots were taken that day. Van Buren had lost ground on every ballot until on the seventh he had only 99 votes as against 123 for Cass, 21 for Johnson, and 22 for James Buchanan. After the seventh ballot the fight on the two-thirds rule was renewed when a delegate from Ohio offered a resolution stating that "Mr. Van Buren having received a vote of the majority of the delegates in this convention on the first ballot, is elected as the nominee for the office of president of the United States." This resolution threw the convention into great confusion in which a delegate from Pennsylvania attempted to stampede the convention into nominating General Jackson. The confusion became greater and greater, and the chairman

Another Beneficial Result of Railroad Advertisers' Visit

The seven railroad advertising agents who spent a week in the Pikes Peak region last fall, guests of the Chamber of Commerce, have returned with a number of suggestions for the improvement of the region. They have also presented a number of suggestions for the improvement of the region. They have also presented a number of suggestions for the improvement of the region.

The last one to be received here is the Agents' Bulletin, the official publication of the Missouri Pacific Mountain Railroad, edited by J. W. Booth, advertising agent of the road. This issue is devoted almost exclusively to Colorado and its attractions. The front cover is a large photograph of Broadmoor lake with Cheyenne mountain in the background. It is a photograph seldom seen among those offered for sale by the dealers here.

Throughout the magazine the writer makes the tourist or busy man off on a vacation to go to Colorado, as the ideal vacation land. He says: "Scenic Colorado is peerless. Not even Switzerland and the Alps can vie with the majestic and varied array of her natural beauties. All the mountain ranges of the east—the Adirondacks, the Alleghenies, the Catskills, the Blue Ridge—beautiful in their gentle slopes and deep green covering and very picturesque of geological aspect, compared with the Colorado Rockies could be lost in the valleys of these titans of the earth. If lined up on the huge plateau of the Colorado plains they would scarcely make respectable foothills for Pikes Peak, Mount Massive and number's other monarchs of the Rockies."

NOVEL ATHLETIC CONTEST AT STEELE SCHOOL TODAY

The first button athletic contest to be held in Colorado Springs will take place on the Columbia school athletic field this afternoon starting at 2:30 o'clock.

The contest will be participated in by the 100 classes, the seniors and the juniors, the former being all boys in Columbia school more than 15 years old and the latter less than 13. There will be five events in each class: broad jump, high jump, 100 and 200 yard dashes and running. Immediately after these events games of various sorts including a league baseball game will be held.

The first prize in the senior class will be a gold button presented to the boy making the greatest number of points. All other contestants in this class reaching a certain standard will be awarded buttons of purple and white enamel the school colors. In the junior class the first prize will be a silver button awarded the boy making the greatest number of points and others reaching the standard will be presented with bronze buttons.

The button athletic contest originated in the New York schools and has become popular throughout the eastern cities. Although various kinds of athletic contests have been held in the public schools here, the button contest has never been introduced. Columbia school is the first to take it up and intends to make it a permanent feature of the school calendar.

REAL ESTATE MEN TO CLOSE OFFICES

Members of the Real Estate division of the Chamber of Commerce will close their offices tomorrow. Pikes Peak Region day.

This was the action taken by the members of the exchange who attended a special meeting in the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. After discussing the matter, they decided that the day was essential to the Pikes Peak region in the matter of publicity and that they should do everything in their power to help observe it as a holiday.

In the matter of distributing among the members of the exchange, the Chamber of Commerce concerning property in or around this city it was decided that the secretary of the Chamber should refer the matter to the agent he thinks is best suited to look after the interests of the inquirer. In case the agent who receives the inquiry knows of another agent who is better suited to handle the matter he will refer the inquiry to him. In this way it is thought that inquiries to the Chamber of Commerce concerning real estate in this vicinity will be answered more fully than by any other method. Formerly the inquiries were handed to the different agents in rotation and very often an agent received an inquiry which he knew very little or nothing about.

H. L. Clayton Tells Public of New Tonic's Effects
DAY'S WORK TURNED HIM EASILY
Has Obtained New Energy and Feels Like Doing Twice as Much.

After having recently been afflicted by the specialists at present time during the new tonic Tona Vita the Colorado Springs public has learned from Mr. H. L. Clayton, 123 East Kiowa Street and is as follows:

"After having been afflicted by the specialists at present time during the new tonic Tona Vita I feel a most remarkable change in my condition. I was both tired with a very severe case of stomach trouble, was also very nervous and generally run down. I was exhausted after a day's work. I had hardly could do more than a much work without half the effort. I heartily recommend Tona Vita to anyone in need of it."

We are meeting more and more each day, said one of the specialists, and the sale of the tonic at Colorado Springs is now very large. This is only received reports from other cities and the sale in all of them is tremendous. In fact the demand has been so large and so sudden that it has been impossible to prepare the tonic fast enough to take care of it. The Approved Formula Company is receiving orders from druggists everywhere asking for the tonic. It is impossible to fill these orders. This demand is all the more remarkable when you consider that the tonic was unknown on this side of the water until about a year ago.

No medicine could be so tremendously successful unless it had a mission to perform and was accomplishing fast mission. Tona Vita is accomplishing its mission. It is making tired out, debilitated, nervous men and women happier, healthier and better prepared to cope with life. Nervous debility is the cause of this age. It is producing the strain of modern life. The symptoms of this trouble are little vitality, an exhausted dragging feeling of mind and body, nervousness and depression, loss of appetite, stomach and liver trouble, shifting headaches, cold feet, indigestion, inability to cough and colds.

Tona Vita is relieving the sufferings of this miserable condition. It will positively do this where there is a serious organic trouble in a very short time. The medicinal benefits from the very first dose.

MAN AND THE SOIL

Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, author of the Common Sense Medical Adviser, says "why does the farmer treat his own body as he treats the land he cultivates. He puts back in phosphate what he takes out in crops, or the land would grow poor. The farmer should put back into his body the vital elements exhausted by labor, or by ill-health induced by some chronic disease." Further, he says, "the great value of my Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in its alkalizing action to the stomach and purity to the blood. It is like the phosphates which supply nature with the substances that build up the crops. The far-reaching action of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is due to its effect on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases that begin in the stomach are cured through the stomach. A bilious spell is simply the result of an effort made by the liver to catch up when over-worked and exhausted. I have found the 'Discovery' to be unsurpassed as a liver regulator and rich blood-maker."

Miss LOTTIE KNISLEY of Perth, Kansas, says: "I will here add my testimony of the effectiveness of your remedy upon myself. I was troubled with indigestion for two years or more. Doctored with three different doctors besides taking numerous kinds of so-called 'stomach cures' but received no permanent relief. I was run down, could not sleep at night with the pain in my chest, caused by gas on the stomach. Was weak, could eat scarcely anything although I was hungry nearly all the time. About one year and a half ago I began to use Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Can now eat without distress and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I thank you for your remedy and wish you all success in your good work."

MISS M'GARRY WEDS

The wedding of Miss Maude McGarry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McGarry of this city, to George W. Tibbitts took place last night at 8:30 o'clock in St. John's Episcopal church, Winthrop, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Tibbitts will reside at 100 Grover avenue, Winthrop, Highlands, Mass., and will be at home to their friends after September 1.

Mrs. McGarry and daughter have been guests at the Hotel Westminster in Boston, for some time, and Judge McGarry joined them about a week ago. Although Mrs. Tibbitts has spent considerable of her time in Boston since her graduation from the Emerson School of Oratory, as secretary to the principal of the school, she is known in the younger social circles of Colorado Springs. The groom is related to an old New England family. Mr. Tibbitts and bride may come to this city and remain until September.

New Bird's-Eye View Map Shows Every Attraction in Pikes Peak Region

This Map Shows Every Attraction in the Pikes Peak Region—How Many of Them Have You Seen, and How Many Are You Going to See Tomorrow?

A bird's-eye view map, done in oil, of the Pikes Peak region, from the Canon City highway on the south to the Modern Woodmen sanatorium on the north, and from Austin Bluffs on the east to the western slope of Pikes Peak on the west, has just been completed by W. S. Hinchelwood of this city, and is on exhibition in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The map was ordered by the advertising committee of the Chamber, to be used in folders and Pikes Peak region literature, and is correct in every detail, with the exception of the part showing the Canon City highway. The scale had to be changed there, owing to the great distance of the highway from Cochetopa mountain.

In securing data for the map, Mr. Hinchelwood covered practically all the roads and trails in the region, as well as the attractions, and took photographs from many points of vantage in order to get the work correct in every detail. The government geological maps also were used in the preparation.

The map itself is about eight feet long and three feet wide, and is done in colors, gray, black and white, predominating. It has been photographed and cuts are being made for use in the next booklet issued by the Chamber. It also will be used in the new auto log book now being compiled.

The photograph shown above gives only a general idea of the information that can be gained by looking at the map. It is greatly reduced, and as the map was made coarse for use on newspaper, it does not show up so well as it will on polished paper, such as is used in the Chamber of Commerce literature. Very few of the trails and roads, or even the railroads, can be seen here, but on the original map they are brought out in colored lines.

Among the attractions shown are: Canon City highway, Stratton park, Broadmoor, North and South Chryseum canyons, Seven Falls, High Drive, Cripple Creek Short Line, Bear Creek canon road, Crystal Park Auto road, Cog road, Manitou, Williams Canon, Cave of the Winds, The Pass, Colorado, Midland railroad, Red Mountain incline, Mount Manitou Scenic incline, Mushroom park, Garden of the Gods, Cliff Dwellers ruins, Glen Eyrie, Modern Woodmen sanatorium.

In the foreground is Colorado Springs, Colorado City and the mesa, the principal buildings in this city being shown and the mills in the Canon City being plainly visible. The various roads leaving Colorado Springs east are seen, as is a part of Austin Bluffs.

Much time and care was spent in making the map, and with the aid of a few places where it was necessary to show some of the peaks, the map is absolutely correct. All residents of the Pikes Peak region are invited to visit the Chamber of Commerce rooms and inspect the map together with other publications on exhibition there.

Flynn Rounding Into Shape for Big Bout

Great Crowds See
Both Fighters
Work Out

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 3.—Large crowds saw Flynn and Johnson in action in their respective training camps yesterday and today. Sunday is always generally observed in Las Vegas. As Lil' Arthur's camp is located in the heart of Las Vegas, not over five minutes' walk from the Santa Fe station and the Castaneda hotel, most of the fight fans took in his performance. Marty Cutler and Rastus Reppes paraded three rounds each with the champion. The big smoke was at his best so far as his feinting and footwork was concerned, though he refrained from beating up his two boys. Johnson went through his full course of gymnasium stunts on his spacious outdoor platform, winding up by a dazzling exhibition of bag punching. For a grand finale he sent the bag a flying among the mob that surrounded the platform.

Flynn also showed before a great mob at Montezuma Springs. The fight is located 10 miles from town, and reached only by auto or rig. Nevertheless a splendid crowd was on hand to fight a man went three rounds with each of his sparring partners. He again worked so hard that Head trainer Tommy Ryan was forced to halt him just as he did yesterday. Ray Marshall was beautifully done up. Williams went out cold in the second round, while Howard Morrow was spayed with the third stanza completed. Ryan and Ryan are working beautifully together, and all sporting men admit on the scene are confident the champion has full and even chance of winning the heavyweight crown again July 4.

RYAN'S SWEEPER 2ND,

MAYER UP, IS FAVORITE

LONDON, June 3.—Herbert A. Duran's Sweeper II, the only American entered for the Derby Wednesday, is a general favorite for the great turf event of the year that begins today shortened to 5 to 2. The American horse will have the advantage of being a jockeyship. The question seems to be whether he is the stamina to stay the distance. B. Joel's White Star defeated out at New Market holds second place in the choice for the coming week.

CKET BILLIARD MATCH
WILL BE PLAYED OVER

TRENTON, N. J., June 3.—The championship pocket billiard match between Alfredo De Oro, challenger, the title, and Edward Ralph, the holder, which was scheduled to tonight, was not finished owing to argument between the players, and is scheduled on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights of next week a 600 point match. The argument over the failure of De Oro to call all which he afterwards made, with score favoring Ralph, 587-583.

BOSTON, June 3.—Chicago won from Boston. Houder's homerun with two men on bases accounted for the local tallies. ### YOUSOUF IS AFTER BOUT WITH DELIVUK

By HASSAN YOUSOUF

I want to issue through The Gazette a challenge to Mr. Charles Delivuk in a return match the contest to be put on either in Colorado Springs, Cripple Creek or Victor. I also will challenge Duffay and wrestle him here or in Grand Junction. But Delivuk is the man I want to meet first, for I know I can beat him with the toe hold. As in the former match I am ready to meet him best two out of three falls on a basis of 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser, or winner take all. Any way will suit me. When I came to Colorado Springs two weeks ago it was with the expectation of taking on Mr. Ryan, either in a handrap match or any way that might be agreed. Instead I was matched with Delivuk and he won by the toe hold. I think I had the better of the match until he got my foot the same one that Duffay twisted in our match in Cripple Creek. But my foot is almost as good now as it ever was and I will be all right again in a few days. If Delivuk can beat me without the toe hold I will be ready to shake hands and tell him he is a better wrestler than I am. I would like to have a match arranged for the next week or two so that I can go to Grand Junction and wrestle Duffay in a return match.

REMOVES S.S.S. BLOOD HUMORS

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work of preserving its smooth, even texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through each tiny outlet, which goes on continually day and night. When the blood becomes infected with humors and acids a certain percentage of these impurities also pass off with the natural evaporation, and their sour, fiery nature irritates and inflames the skin, and dries up its natural oils, causing pimples, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin affection. S.S.S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S.S.S. cools the acid-head circulation, brings it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies the nutritious red corpuscles, and enriches the skin. Then the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased by the exuding acid matter, is nourished, soothed and softened by this cooling, healthy stream of blood. S.S.S. is the best of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and surely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases and affections of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. Look on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired free to all who write. T. ### IN THE WAKE OF THE NEWS

Tommy Ryan, erstwhile middleweight champion, and one of the closest in the fighting game, and who is now in charge of Freeman Jim Flynn's training camp at Las Vegas has figured as prominently as any of them in pugilistic history. When he was the big gun in the middleweight category, more than a decade ago, he was known as "The Kid" for his own. Later he made Benton Harbor, Mich. and Chicago his home alternately. Perhaps the world doesn't know it but Ryan takes great pride in the part he has played in the making of ring champions. After he had given up the game himself he prepared Jeffries for his fight with Corbett at Cones Island, and saw Jeff knock out the pompous one in 23 rounds. It was Ryan who taught Jeff his famous crouch. And now Ryan says he is going to make a champion of Jim Flynn. He is enthusiastic over the condition in which he found the youngster when he reached Las Vegas a few days ago, and believes that the "Kidman" has the goods to win the championship battle July 4. Ryan thinks pretty well of Flynn's chances and hopes to teach him a few tricks that could not be conveyed by anyone else than Fox Tommy.

REDS CAPTURE ANNUAL PLAY FESTIVAL, 161-151

A large and enthusiastic crowd attended the second annual play festival at the Steele school yesterday afternoon. The festival was conducted in the gymnasium, the contest between the Reds and Blues, the Blues winning by a score of 161 to 151. Paul Clark and Teddy L. was both of the Blues, won first and second places respectively, in the 50 yard dash, 6-2-5 seconds. In the potato race young Clark looked like a winner but failed to keep his feet in one of the turns and had to be content with second place, first going to Foster Koke. Time 15-3 seconds. In the trials of this event Murray Hubbell made the best time 17-4 seconds, in the 100 yard race in the semifinals. In the 100 yard race, Malcolm Graham of the Reds, who tied last year for the championship, and last year won both the high jump and 75-yard dash. He tied with Albert Robinson for second place in the high jump. Graham made the 75-yard dash in 8-5-5 seconds and cleared the bar in the high jump at 4 feet 9 inches.

The 100-yard dash in A class was won by Fred Westheimer, with Ray Hagler second, both of the Reds. Time 11-4-5 seconds. In the pole vault Hagler won first place by vaulting 5 feet and Reginald McIntyre of the Blues took second place. In the volley ball game the Reds, captained by Thelma Argent, won over the Blues by a score of two games to one. Lucile St. John, Blues' forward, was the star player. The Reds won a baseball game and won by a score of 4 to 2. In the tunnel ball game, Merle Ayland a Blues won.

Donald Lieberknecht won the thing event by a perfect score of 12 points. Reginald McIntyre took second place with 11 points. Probably the prettiest and most interesting event of the occasion were the folk dances given by the little folks of Miss Wells and Miss Hall's rooms, and the Maypole dances put on by the girls trained by the Misses McFadden and Slaughter. Scores of pretty girls dressed in white, dancing with apparent ease the intricate steps of the various figures gave just the thing a color necessary to make the event one of grace and beauty.

The exhibition of Indian club swinging given by the group of girls under the direction of Supervisor Epps called forth a cheering comment and collected great credit on the work accomplished by him in the short time he has been connected with the playground movement at the Steele school.

Tesreau Has Played All Over Country

Benton Holmes who does "Travelogue" notes, had anything on Jeff Tesreau pitcher for the Giants. Tes has been about everywhere there is in baseball. Charles Barrett scouting for the Browns, discovered Tes in a little town in the west. He signed him, and Tesreau reported in the spring. Very promptly Austin, Texas, put in a claim. They got him. Detroit discovered Tesreau working for an independent club and got him to join the Tigers. He worked out two days, and came from Austin that he belonged there. He returned at once. Then he went to Shreveport and from there to Toronto, and now is with the Indians.

Umpire Rigler in Bad With Teams and Fans

Recent Decisions
Make A Bitter
Unpopular

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—It never rains but it pours, and that is true of an umpire's troubles. When they begin to break badly they break in bunches. So it seems with Umpire Rigler of the National league, who, with the season only a month old is in bad in several particulars. First there came his construction of what constituted interference on the part of a batter when he called Brooklyn players out for swinging their bats at pitched balls to bother the catcher in efforts to peg base stealers. The ruling was correct in theory and might well be generally enforced, but it was an innovation, and as such stirred a storm from the team that was adversely affected. Next came Rigler's ruling with Manager Dahlen of Brooklyn in which the umpire and manager came to blows. More recently Umpire Rigler has figured in a protested game between New York and Chicago, the protest being that he had allowed a home run by New York on the ground that Rigler erred in reversing a base decision made by Field Umpire Finnegan. Such reversal permitting Chicago to tie the game, and denying New York a victory. The disputed play is on that came

A GREAT RECORD

Hard to Duplicate It in Colorado Springs. Scores of representative groups of Colorado Springs are testifying for Donna Kinney Pills. Such a record of local endorsement is unequalled in our times. This unique statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that have preceded it and the hundreds that will follow. Read it.

LATER TESTIMONY

On August 14, 1911, Mr. L. J. was interviewed and he said: "I am so indebted to any kind of medicine that I can give you a testimonial for Donna Kinney Pills. I give them to my family for my cure."

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 3.—Prices ebbed and flowed sluggishly in the stock market today, except in some of the high priced specialties, especially American Tobacco, which added 13 1/2 cents to its price in a week in anticipation of a large bonus or scrip dividend which is said to be impending.

The movement in the actual leaders was circumscribed and frequently uncertain. Copper shares were active and fairly strong on the steady demand for the metal at the new high price. The Amalgamated company issued its annual report for the preceding year, disclosing earnings equal to about 4-1/2 per cent of the average price of the total supply of 1911—22 increased by $2,800,000, with increased liabilities of $963,000.

Among the numerous railway returns for April, Louisville & Nashville made a net gain of about $500,000, Atlantic Coast line $106,000, and Missouri Pacific $145,000. New York, New Haven & Hartford managed to make a nominal gain.

Bonds were irregular with some improvement in the late dealings. Total sales, par value, $1,835,000.

United States government bonds were unchanged on call.

CHICAGO MARKET

damage said to have been inflicted on wheat in Kansas and Nebraska sent the price today to a higher level. It was declared by experts that the recent rainfall had been insufficient over a large portion of the two states, and that moisture now for such districts could be without avail. The close was firm, within a shade of the top figures reached, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 net and 1/4 to 1/2 up, oats with a gain of 1/4 to 1/2, and provisions dearer by 2 1/2 to 4c.

Wheat had the most bullish effect on the wheat market, and the prediction that in consequence of the alleged damage in the west the next crop would be short, was the main factor in the movement. The market showed a radical falling off in the figures telling the condition. Wheat traders here were influenced by the damage displayed a tendency to lead in the price advance. Moreover, the weather forecasts held out no hope of rain, so that the outlook beyond the indicated area again was considered critical. July wheat ranged from $1.08 to $1.10 1/4, with last sales 1 1/4 net higher at $1.10 1/4.

Long corn holdings were let go early by weak owners. Fine weather furnished the incentive. July fluctuated from 71 1/2 to 73 1/4, closed steady, 1/4 up at 72 1/4. Cash demand was better. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 74 1/2.

Active shipping demand upheld oats at a sharp advance. The rise was due, however, to the bullish action of other grain. July ranged from 49 1/2 to 47 1/2, and closed at 49 1/2, an advance of 1 1/2 net.

Provisions worked higher all around because of lively buying, in which a big packing concern was conspicuous. At the wharfed, pork had a rise of 35c to 18 1/2, lard, 27 1/2 to 30 1/2, and bacon, 27 1/2.
